Once you have been disabled for 2 years following the elimination period, you must be prevented from performing one or more of the essential duties of any occupation and as a result, your current monthly earnings are less than or equal to 66 2/3% of your pre-disability earnings.

Pre-disability earnings means your monthly average of earnings from your employer based on your Statement of Wages Earned and Taxes Withheld (Form W-2) for the one full tax year immediately prior to the last day you were actively at work.

You must be a citizen or legal resident of the United States, its territories and protectorates.

Benefit Separation Periods. If a covered person is diagnosed with a covered illness, and is subsequently diagnosed with another covered illness, the following separation periods apply between benefit payments. If the subsequent diagnosis is for: 1) A different, non-related covered illness than the first diagnosis (e.g. a cancer illness then a vascular illness), then no separation period applies; 2) A covered illness that is related to the first (e.g. two vascular illnesses, like heart attack and stroke), then a 30 day separation period applies; 3) The same covered illness as the first (e.g. two heart attacks) as allowed by the Recurrence Benefit, then a 12 month separation period applies.

Pre-Existing Condition Limitation. We will not pay a benefit or any increase in benefits for any critical illness for a pre-existing condition, unless at the time of a positive diagnosis a covered person has been continuously insured under the policy or any prior group plan for 12 months. Pre-existing condition, as used in this limitation, means any critical illness for which medical care is received within the 12 month period prior to the effective date of insurance for a covered person or prior to the effective date of any increase in coverage for a covered person, under the policy or any prior group plan.

- Diagnosed during an applicable benefit separation period
- For which a covered person has already received a benefit payment under the policy, unless the covered illness is included in a recurrence provision
